ABOUT ME

I'm 26 years old. I learned about coding by making websites using site builders like webflow. at first, it was a hobby. but then I was intrigued to make websites with more difficult logic. and at this point, I began learning to code. I began learning javascript. learned about frontend, backend, and algorithms. then fell in love with this area. I am intrigued to learn new things. explore new technologies and take the part in developing projects that gonna be used by a lot of people
